Re: UNITED STATES v. CANNISTRACI; 05 Cr. 842 (ARR)

Dear Judge Ross:

cc: Counsel

I am CJA counsel whom Your Honor appointed to advise the defendant, Joseph Davino, with respect to his rights, pursuant to Curcio and the Sixth Amendment, to conflict-free counsel.

The Court had set the matter down for a status conference on February 23, 2006 at 4:00 p.m.

I write to respectfully request that the proceedings be continued from tomorrow at 4:00 p.m. to Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday of next week if any of these days are convenient to the Court.

The reason for this request is that my 93 year old mother recently passed away. I am the "only child" and for reasons that I could not anticipate last week, tomorrow is the only day that I will have prior to a memorial service this weekend, to meet with the Rabbi and to coordinate a number of other matters realted to the Service.

I have left a voicemail message for Assistant U.S. Attorney E. Scott Morvillo to obtain his consent, but we have not spoken. However, under the circumstances, I am quite confident that he would give his consent.

I appreciate the Court's consideration and understanding.

Respectfully yours,

Roger J. Schwarz
